

Smoke DZA

"Goodbye To Boston"

Visit "Goodbye To Boston" on MotoLyrics.com

Above the city, above my grave,
From a rooftop looking down.
I've been asleep for four years
But I'm waking up.

And if you'd found me dead on your floor
With a stomach full of pills
It wouldn't have made a difference anyway,
Cause I'm on the edge.

And if you told me it would stay this way
I'd take two steps to send me
Anywhere but this place. A fall to the earth.
Two steps could send me anywhere but this place,
And fuck what you think you know about me.

And I feel like running. Like running away.
Does everybody here have a bone to pick with me?
I feel like running. Like running away.
Does everybody here have a bone to pick with me?

And if you told me it would stay this way
I'd take two steps to send me
Anywhere but this place. A fall to the earth.
Two steps could send me anywhere but this place,
And fuck what you think you know about me.

Visit Smoke DZA page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.