I'm starting to see things more clearly now
The wheel will always turn
Spinning inward to my core
And as I approach I can see you now
Your arms are open
A comfort like I've never felt before

So here I am
Do with me what You will
But am I strong enough?

I'm letting go of the things I know that will
Hold me down, hold me down
Don't hold me down, hold me down
And say goodbye to the things that I know will
Hold me down, hold me down
Don't hold me down, hold me down to earth

I've done what I wanted and as I pleased
But it's never been enough
It left me cold and all alone
And now that I feel You come over me

I know yes I know that You're here
Here with me

So here I am
Do with me what You will
But am I strong enough?

Letting go, Letting go
Letting go, Letting go

I'm letting go of the things I know that will
Hold me down, hold me down
Don't hold me down, hold me down
And say goodbye to the things that I know will
Hold me down, hold me down
Don't hold me down, hold me down to earth
