by the sight by the sound by the fervour underground I could tell she'd struck again her disease was so profound by the smoke by the smog by the covering of fog I could see her pretty face foaming like a rabid dog the house burned into ash vaporized in a flash my mouth could only form the words that said it all

OMG WTF BBQ 911
she's gone and had her way with matches again!
the fire's in her eyes and her beauty her disguise as she danced out of the flames that would fill the open skies
singing whoaaaaaaaaa and then she'd slip away and fall into my arms
I try to stop her but she's just too hot to handle my pretty baby, my little lady noone needs to know your dark identity everytime you show up smelling like gasoline I just pretend it's a new kind of sunscreen you're my fantasy you're my potpourri you add spice to the vanilla in my life you pyromaniac, walking heart attack how did I ever find a girl as sweet as you?

she's gone and had her way with matches again!
open skies

I try to stop her but she's just too hot to handle hypnotizing flames dance higher try to escape the alibi the authorities are closing in now my lovely arsonist must say goodbye you're my firework my guilty pleasure you'll carry torches for me forever the passions smoldering noone's following the blaze in my heart immolates all danger burn...oh how it burns it burns.. it burns.. oh how it burns.. baby so sweet like apple pie, with a filling akin to spanish fly she's addictive, comely, and makes it all a dream that leads to angel's fall have mercy... little devil have mercy, mercy

SHE'S SMOKING!!

OMG WTF BBQ 911!
she's gone and had her way with matches again!
open skies
OMGWTFBBQ911! OMGWTFBBQ911! OMGWTFBBQ911!

(singing whoaaaaaaaaa and then she'd slip away
and fall into my arms
whoaaaaaaaaa OMG... WTF!)

I try to stop her but she's just too damn hot!
