So now it's over, you chose another this despite all of my best moves undercover carnal fun was the basis of the affair I was fooled into thinking that you did care

Ey! Oh! It's ok, you left my life in disarray Ey! Oh! I'll get by, I'm not that other guy...

..who's probably been wondering where is it that you go when you show up at 3 am with no explanation another way another day another lifetime well I might have been yours and well you might have been mine...

but I had you, I had you, I had you my dear not in your head but in your bed nibbling your ear I had you, I had you, I had you in every way though you were never mine you were my personal buffet

it's not the best day, it's not the worst day just a day that I knew would always come day

Such a shame that I'll never meet your mother a part of me will miss you more than another

Ey! Oh! It was fun, you'll always be my number one Ey! Oh! Sad but true, I guess I'm number two

been mine...

and still I had you, I had you, I had you my dear not in your head but in your bed nibbling your ear

and everytime you used to smile at me, well it would set me free, and I could only be for you (Your apathy cuts like shards of glass, each time I swore would be the last) we clearly never shared the same point of view (my heart is cold, now I've seen the light, my eyes are red, too many sleepless nights) what's this? what can this be? 5 seats back on a flight to miami there you are with a look of shock, you just can't wait for this boat to dock call it coincidence or call it fate, I finally see you with your true soul mate now I see the reason you wouldn't commit, you couldn't love me cuz you married a hobbit still I had you, I had you, I had you my dear not in your head but in your bed sucking on your ear

I had you, I had you, I had you even more I fell in love with you, you just wanted to screw and walk out the door
I had you, I had you, something like 50 times out in the sun with your pants undone I enjoyed the crimes
