I feel it
I need you
To keep me going strong
You and I
Histor-y
Together for so long

And if you ever wonder
How we keep from going under
It's because we find another
Reason not to give in

And even though we may not
Get to where we wanna go
I do believe that we both know
It don't matter in the end

Cause in the summer weather
We'll put sunscreen on together
I would not want your skin to burn, no

I've been bad
And mean to
You but you right my wrongs
I do try
You know I
Love to sing all your songs

And if you move away
I'll try hard not to hesitate
Thinking I cannot lift the weight
Without you here to share it

But if you have to go
I promise you that on my own
It will be known that I was trying
Hard to grin and bear it

Cause in the winter weather
I'll lend you my warmest sweater
I would not want you to get cold, no

No matter what the weather
I'll do anything whatever
If i could be so very bold, oh
I never want us to grow old
