4 o'clock in the morning in a matter apartment There's a fire alarm, fire like ive never seen but i dont wana fight now we've got the alarm set cos theres too much goin on these days said im a main man im a main man baby and it looks so good like you've never seen but you can see right through it like like a fake tan baby you can see right through it like you saw through me

cos theres too much goin on these days
i dont want to let you down just when fire could take this town

and the bed feels good and you put on my face and i swear down baby had too much to drink but its all worth it, thats what i think cos theres too much going on these days i dont want to let you down just when fire could take this town i dont want to let you down just when fire could take this town
