Verse 1:

Far so long I was silent. Far so long I did not have a song of praise. Depression filled my days and clouds blocked my ways. but there was a voice speaking to me awaking the passion so quiet in me, in me, so still in me.

Chorus:

I choose to worship. I just can't give up. I choose to worship. My mind is made up.

Verse 2:

Is that your voice calling me into that secret place with thee. My heart has longed for this moment with thee.

Chorus:

I choose to worship. I just can't give up. I choose to worship. My mind is made up.

Verse 3:

I choose to worship right here in the midst of everything that I'm going through. Tears running down my face. Don't know where to go. Don't have nobody to talk to but I've made up my mind; I'm going to worship you. In spirit and in truth I bless your name I glorify you right now I'm desperate for your presence God. I'm coming after you.
