If she says that shes doing fine without you,
And if she feels like shes doing time by being with you,
Small sins that are big within hold on to you.
But if she says that the feelings dead,
Well shell come back to you,
Shell come back to you.

Were to blame for the weight thats on our shoulders,
Small sins that are big within burn and smoulder slowly.
And if she says that the feelings dead you should hold her,
Yeah if she says that the feelings dead you should hold her all night,
You should hold her all night.

Were to blame for the evil that surrounds us,
And were the heart because we play the part its appealing to us.
But heavy maths and charts and graphs deny this;
But small sins that are big within will flourish,
So its on you,
Yeah its on you.

Ive been waiting for you to come back,
Come back to us
