"Stay"

Find the man you want
He's got all you need and more,
When I go South again,
He'll be waiting at your door.

And when you breathe that way
Because you want me to stay up,
Count the lipstick stains,
That you get on all my cups.

And when the right time comes
I'll be what you've grown to hate,
Like your high school crush,
Made you pass your papers in late.

Well you can stay if you want to
But you can't sleep in my bed,
Yeah you can stay if you want to,
But you can't sleep in my bed.
