"Fool About You"

Sometimes I feel I've been hung on a line
Wasting my time
Sometimes I feel I've been hung upside down
You turned me around, just a fool about you

Sometimes I feel I've been left on the moon
Fed with a spoon
Sometimes I feel like a dog with no bone
Or a toad with no stone, just a fool about you

Sometimes I feel like saying goodbye
'Cause I'm living a lie
Sometimes I feel like a clock with no time
Or a verse with no rhyme, just a fool about you

Sometimes I feel like a bird with no wing
A bee with no sting
Sometimes I feel like a train with no line
Or a glass with no wine, just a fool about you

Everybody knows I'm a fool about you
I'm a fool, just a crazy fool
Everybody knows I can't live without you
So what am I gonna do?

Sometimes I feel I've been hung on a line
Wasting my time
Sometimes I feel I've been hung upside down
You turned me around, just a fool about you

Sometimes I feel I've been left on the moon
Fed with a spoon
Sometimes I feel like a dog with no bone
Or a toad with no stone, just a fool about you
