Force yourself to use your brain
The only way to gain
A lot of things are just a lie

This world we love comes down in pain
With hate and bloody games
A question-mark up in the sky, oh no

Look, you can't keep away
And you can't hide
Tomorrow, yesterday, today

Some people say we'll do it better
Some people say everything's good
Some people sing, let's come together
But nobody has ever brought it through

Some people say we'll do it better
Some people say everything's good
Some people sing, let's come together
But nobody has ever brought it through

Maybe you and me, maybe you and me
You and me, you and me, you and me
You and me, you and me, you and me
You and me, you and me, you and me
You and me, you and me
