Hello again
You've been alone awhile
And I can use a friend

Your shades are down
And I've been waiting here
For you to come around

And it's not about forgiveness
'Cause it's all about the love anyhow

We were born to fly
To reach beyond the sky
To carry on forever after
You and I

You keep my faith alive
With you, I'm not afraid
To rise and fall and face disaster
You and I, we were born to fly

Take another breath
Just close your eyes, my love
Let nature do the rest

Open up your wings
And with the wind we'll rise above
To higher things

We'll forget about tomorrow
And we'll live another day today

We were born to fly
To reach beyond the sky
To carry on forever after
You and I

You keep my faith alive
With you, I'm not afraid
To rise and fall and face disaster
You and I, we were born to fly
We were born to fly

We were born to fly
To reach beyond the sky
To carry on forever after
You and I

You keep my faith alive
With you, I'm not afraid
To rise and fall and face disaster
You and I, we were born to fly
We were born to fly

We were born to fly
To reach beyond the sky
To carry on forever after
You and I

You keep my faith alive
With you, I'm not afraid
To rise and fall and face disaster
You and I, we were born to fly
