What U give, U get back

As long as I can think I've been
Running to be free
There's not a place that could have been too far

Had nothing but a bag of dreams
And this old guitar
A couple of songs to play for you an' me

There's so much love inside of me
That wants to be released
I can't help it so I give it all away

What U give, U get it back
So take my love just because it's all I have
And take my heart, take my soul
I just never want it back

As long as I've been living
I've had music in my veins
I can't go on without it anymore

My suitcase is a wanderer
That takes me, I believe
For a walk right across your heart

There's so much love inside of you
That wants to be released
And all you gotta do is let it go

What U give, U get back
So take my love just because it's all I have
And take my heart, take my soul
I just never want it back
'Cause the love you give, is the love you'll get

There's so much love inside of me
That wants to be released
I can't help it so I gave it all away

What U give, U get back

So take my love just because it's all I have

What U give, U get back

So take my love just because it's all I have

Take my heart, take my soul

I just never want it back

'Cause your love, your love is all I have

All I have

Love is all we have, oh yeah

All I have

All I have

All I have

What U give, U get back

Take my love just because it's all I have
