TAKE COVER, COVER
For this war has begun
It's a sabotage, self sabotage

Go ahead fight your fight, lose yourself that's fine
But when the moment comes, and it starts again
REMEMBER THIS, REMEMBER THIS

The sorrow you feel in your heart, will cease
The fear that surrounds your mind, don't let it control you

We lock ourselves inside of cages, look all around you
We're all afraid, of what is to come next
This is your last chance, god save us all

These lies will take you over
But I see beyond it and the way you think
This power is relentless

(This is a direct order, do it now)

Don't forget something has to change
I can't do it alone
