

A Day Of Disaster "Shadows"

Visit "Shadows" on MotoLyrics.com

We live in the image of the unknown
Hiding behind, our shadows

Your lying, your lying to yourself
Keep lying, you'll never get away

Be aware, for I am with you
And you are under my neck, betraying me, turning away
Those are his words, those are his words

We live in the image of the unknown
Hiding behind, the air is no longer breathable to us

No longer, breathable to us

Oh god, save me, desperate I need your love

The king, of the air, will find you.

(Martin luther king "I have a dream" segments)
