(Intro)

Baby baby I miss you, I need you here with me, my life is incomplete, how I Long to see your face, I miss your pretty smile, without you there's no me.

(Chorus)

Tell me how can I move on, show me how to carry on when your no longer There and tell me how can I be strong when my happiness is gone if your No longer there.

(Verse)

I close my eyes and let the rain fall from the sky and wish that I had Never ever made you cry, regardless of what circumstances be, you kept Your word and your promise to always honor me, so what I gotta do to make This up to you, how can I make you feel the love that I still have for You ,did I lose your trust did I lose my mind, did I lose the gift the Lord sent me from the sky, I guess that you can say I kinda went to far, Played my selfish little games that only broke your heart, into a million Pieces when, you laid there and cried and all that I can do say I'm sorry I lied, remember when I told you that the day that I die I want you to be The only one right there by my side, you've been my happiness, my best friend, my everything and even though my word means nothing I'll love you till the end.

(Chorus)

How can I be strong knowing now that your gone, I remember on the days You use to hold me in your arms, she'd tears every night, something I've Never done before the life of a player wasn't worth losing my girl

You're my world and I need you i'd do anything to see your face over Again I lost more than just a friend till the end I will love you you will Never be replaced the emptiness inside of me living this unhappiness
Tell me how can I move on it's like living a sad song just to here you Breathe or the sound of your voice you were the light in life I was Afraid to let you go the days go by don't want to live no more if I Could touch you one last time show me a sign I'll be there i hold my head Down cause you no longer there but I know you in the heavens looking Down at me how could the sweetest girl in the world be taken from me.

(Outro)

So Baby baby I miss you I need you here with me my life is incomplete how I Long to see your face I miss your pretty smile without you there's no me.

(Chorus)
