Together is
The only thing
That I got left to say/to try

There are so many lies
Kept locked away
I will never know you until we stay more together

Your face
Underneath a sky of dust
Is lookin' at me

The sound of your voice is close to me

Don't waste the time

Now everything is not what
We want it to be

I always played moving pictures in my head
I don't want to live in a world of lies
Trust what is real and start again

No more lies
