some art's just like a teacup, when you're looking for a beer some art, some art, it scares you and some, some art's about the fear. some art is a highbrow thing some art's about the eyebrow ring some art's about the tattoo some art's about the artist and that art's not meant for you:

but my art's not made like that my art's not meant for that no, my art's not built like that my art's not dressed for that.

some art's ecclesiastes, some art's about the sin some art it seems just heavenly and that's great if it lets you in. some art's all multi-colored til it goes behind the scene it comes out all multi-corporate then it only comes in green:

my art's not built like that my art's not dressed for that.

some art's a one-hit wonder why they think we're deaf and dumb it's like the disciples at the last supper if God fed 'em bubble gum.
some art's a pedigree whitewash, a cryptic clean cover-up my art don't need no ivory badge to back up what's in its gut:

my art's not made like that
my art's not meant for that
my art's not dressed for that.

some art don't care about you, what you say or what you do my art's the Mona Lisa and she's looking straight at you. my art wears the same clothes seven days a week cause my art don't seem to care about what other people think. some art's real nice to look at, some art's all neat and clean my art forgot her tampon
and she's bleeding through her jeans.
and she's bleeding through her jeans yeah, my art don't need no tampon she'll just bleed through your dreams:

my art's just made like that my art's just meant for that my art's just built like that yeah, my art's just dressed for that
my heart's just built like that.
