Verse 1

When I look at you
I see the man that you could be
The potential that you probably aren't able to see
So can you honestly look at me
And tell there's no l o v e
And that you see no future wit me
See I been deep in thought
Thinking about the stuff that I been taught
How you lie and you get caught
So I make sure that the truth comes out
And I know with out a dout
Your name is what my heart shouts
So listen to the words that are comin about my mouth
So you can see how I feel inside
I feelings for you baby that ii don't want to hide
It's just me and you against the world
You be boy and I be girl
And one country at a time well take over the world

SN:

Can you really be the man for me or is this just a fantasy
I know this could be all in my head but I love you baby that what you said
So before I get in this too deep did you really mean the words that you speak
Now baby my heart is weak so could you answer these questions for me
I've been lied to before now me and my ex we don't talk anymore
So baby just keep it real
Tell me
Is this how you feel

Verse 2

I want the best for you
Do you want the best for me
I'm havin fun wit you
Do you have fun wit me
I want to kick it wit you relax just chill

You huggin all on me while I'm cooking all yo meals
You got trust issues
But I trust in you
I hope one day the you can trust in me too
We holding hands while we laying in the bed
We laughing at atuff people on tv said
I hope this always last
You know how to make me laugh
But our relationship got problems just like math
So lets see
Take you
Then add me
Put that to the second power now that's crazy
Well maybe it's my insecurities
That makes me think baby you don't really love me
But when I'm in your arms you make me feel bubbly
You tell me how cute I am
And that I'm lovely

SN:
The smell of your hair
The taste of your kiss
These are things I will always miss
The sound of your voice
The feel of your hand
They affect me in ways you could never understand
The love in your heart
The peace in your eyes
When I tell you I love you don't act suprise
You are a gift that god gave to me
And I could feel
That we were meant to be
