Try to run, try to hide
I'm alone in the dangerous zone
I know it's hard, it's a fight
Time to leave yesterday behind

Memorize the word of God
I know it's the best way out
Through the shadows, into the light
I'll see the truth of my enemy's lies

We meet temptations
Don't fool yourself
We meet temptations
On and on and on and on again

Keep the fire burning
Always on the edge
Help me not to fall
Keep the fire burning
It's a race against our time

What is wrong? What is right?
Give me strenght, I can't sleep at night
I feel the pressure, I go insane
Feel like I'm losing the game

What are the reasons, don't have a clue
Troubles coming, one day I'll be through
So many things, I don't understand
Keep me calm, Lord take my hand

We meet temptations
Don't fool yourself
We meet temptations
On and on and on and on again

Keep the fire burning
Always on the edge
Help me not to fall
Keep the fire burning
It's a race against our time

Keep the fire burning
Always on the edge
Help me not to fall
Keep the fire burning
It's a race against our time

Keep the fire burning x4
It's a race against our time

Keep the fire burning
Always on the edge
Help me not to fall
Keep the fire burning
It's a race against our time

Keep the fire burning
Keep the fire burning tonight
