The world is offering gold for everyone
But nothing lasts forever, that's for sure
Come drink the water, the water of life
It will save your soul, it's a holy cure

Listen to me
Be careful with your heart
Lock the door
When evil comes around

Time's running fast and we can't slow it down
Yeah the Son will come, yeah the Son will come
Time's running fast and we can't slow it down
Yeah the Son will come, yeah the Son will come

I know the fire, the fire inside
When the Spirit leads the way, I know I'm right
I was a traveler searching everywhere
Searching for the truth, prepared to fight
