To My Baby Lyrics

[chorus]
Every time I here this song
Playing on my radio (ohh)
It just reminds me off
How much I love you so.. (yehhh)

Every time I think of you
I just want to call you boy
To let you know, that I will always be there for you..

[Verse]
What's going on baby girl,
It's been a long, long time
That I, I told you what i'm feeling inside
You know it seems to be, That all i think about is you
Ruby red lips to the way you move your hips
I'm trying to be the perfect man, always getting lost in love
Down for yours, on this AZ side
Im crushing in my limit, and your always on my mind
It's even better when your right there by my side
I'm analyzing what you say and what you do
And everybody is jealous cause I'd rather be with you
But that aights, and maybe scandalous too
Reservation at the Marriott's, suite for two
Time flys, we overlook the city lights
From the mountain tops, you'll be pressing that rewind Slow jams, long stems, tell me what you want to have
I want to be the one to give you everything (yehhh)

[chorus]
Every time I here this song
Playing on my radio
It just reminds me off (it just reminds me off..)
How much I love you so..

Every time I think of you (everytime..)
I just want to call you boy
To let you know, that I will always be there for you..

[verse]

Now from the views while I've been looking at,
Looking at you clown at the other guys,
Creeping through the crowd, thinkin' they can
While u just loungin thinkin of me in the lime light
To get your life change something
And I know, most of em are like the one before em
So ignore em and a player like me, will thank u for it
For the thoughts of your loving alone,
Is enough to have the hardest players holding on,
For every second that your gone,
And that's alright, to let your ice shine,
Brown eyes, light skin, big lips with latin vibes,
And I knew why she was quick to pass by,
Cause' I kept on looking,
And I wondered to myself, if I had been mistaken,
For a player, heartbreaker, who laid with a few numbers,
Too many for you, But who you gonna listen to,
A liar who's trying to take your heart,
Or one who had it from the start,
And never disregarded it.. girl.

[bridge]

Hey Mr. DJ could you play my favourite song (play my song...)
Cause everytime you do (everytime you do...)
I'm thinking of my boo (thinkin of my boo...) Please Mr. DJ could you play it for my date (you are my everything...)
And dedicate it to my baby, baby, baby, tonight...

[verse]

I think it's kind of cool, everytime you're walking by,
You looking so good, always catching my eyes,
Wondering if you would be down like Im down with you,
Did your girl tell you, I wanna hook-up with you, Sometimes I think of you, when you're lounging at home,
Are you thinking of me, when they play your favourite
song,
We both hesitate to always pick up the phone,
Let it ring, hang it up, say you probably ain't home,
You make me feel different everytime I'm around you,
Ain't no girl can make me feel the way you do,
So lets make this happen, lets hook-up for this date,
We'll both gear up and pick you up at 8,
You driving me crazy and I don't know why,
I couldn't approach you with this feeling, that Im feel'n inside,

Now it's summer time, rollin' by my side,
Should of known from the date, you were down to ride..
yeh..

[bridge 2]

Everybody, whose got somebody,
Who makes you feel so good inside,
To everybody, whose got somebody,
Show your love
Dedicate this song to them (yeh...)

[chorus]

Every time I here this song
Playing on my radio
It just reminds me off (it just reminds me off..)
How much I love you so..

Every time I think of you (everytime..)
I just want to call you boy
To let you know, that I will always be there for you..
