Damn
You know
If it's meant to be, it's meant to be
You can't run from love
This is how I met my baby
Bobby

When I first met you I had these deep feelings
I knew that you could be the one
We went back in grade school kissing on the school bus
We were young but just having fun
Must have been destiny
Now that we're older and we found each other again
I've learned a lesson that love will find you if you just let it in

[Chorus]
I'll never leave you
God put us together
Forever
My Angel
Never leave you
You're my best friend
And it's to the end
I'll die for you
Never leave you
God put us together
Forever
My Angel
Never leave you
You're my best friend
And it's to the end
I'll die for you

Sometimes I pinch myself to see if I'm dreamin
Cause this love we have is so real
Cause when I saw you again
I didn't really know how you would really feel
Everytime that we make love
It feels like the very first time
I've learned a lesson that love will find you because it's so divine

[Chorus]

Never leave you
I'll die for you
Never leave you
Never leave you
I'll die for you
Never leave you
Never leave you
I'll die for you
Never leave you
Never leave you
I'll die for you
Never leave you
Never leave you
You're my better half
All I needed was you to come back in my life
I love you more than I've ever loved before
For you I'll sacrifice
I'll go and sing it
Don't you ever leave
Right now you're all that I know
We become one
I feel what you feel
I'll protect you...
I'll protect... baby, yeah
Ohh yeah...
I'll never leave you...

[Chorus]
