"No Good For You"

She was calling me daddy, I was calling her mommy
That's when she tried to put it on me
Telling me how she want it
Well it's ok, you love me now
But you probably gonna hate me later
You don't wanna go back cause my love is bad

I just wanna come through, and pull out on them tracks
And lay you on the bed, break that back
I'm just no good for you, no good
I'm just no good for you, no good
Cause all I wanna, all I wanna, all I wanna, all I wanna do
I'm just no good for you, no good
I'm just no good for you, no good
Cause all I wanna, all I wanna, all I wanna, all I wanna
