Can't believe you chose 2 start the night this way

Then you said wait baby no sit down
Babygurl I juss knew right then
Sumthing wuz wrong with yah
You said I can't be with yah
Then it started to feel like my heart jumped out my chest
Felt like I lost my breath
This is not how we're supposed 2 be (baby)
The story has juss begun
We've only turn the page once
And trust me this is such a beautiful one, baby

[Chorus:]

You don't have 2 turn the page
I read the story
It ends with you and me
You don't have to walk away
The story will change
Baby please don't turn the page

You don't have 2 turn the page
I read the story
It ends with you and me
You don't have to walk away
The story will change
Baby please don't turn the page

Don't turn it, don't turn it don't
Baby please don't turn the page
Don't turn it, don't turn it don't

And I know you might be Stuck in the past but I

To make it all better
All he took You trough I would never do that 2 you
He made it so hard 4 me 2 love you
But I'm here now
How can I make it clear now
The story ain't ova not now

[Bridge:]

As if it wasn't enough
I got the ring in my truck
I've been plannin' a week
To get on one knee
Baby this juss ain't you
I know that he hurt you
And we're nothin' alike
I'll prove it all tonight
And you know I love you
And everything will be kool
And you'll say you love me
And forget all ur pain
You know this iz true

I'm doin' all this 4 you
So end of it all, you don't have to

[Chorus:]

You don't have 2 turn the page
