(Feat. Nick Esposito)

Let's piece these clouds together like these miles are only fiction,
Like the swell of this river could break apart this distance,
And in a course not well designed let's build a still life and climb inside, We'll drop some sunshine to find our way - I think this is where I'd like to stay,

We'll raise our voices to this chorus,
You and I are only noises, Alone we're simply static but together we're the perfect harmony,

Oh melody you are, are to me the sweet summer song I want to believe,
Please run with me I'm becoming hopelessly addicted - just like we predicted.

Eyes flicker like faulty streetlights,
We pull the stars from the sky,
Moved mountains to the seashore,
Built a home so we didn't have to run anymore,
Let waves crash over us,
The stars will keep us warm,
Wear the night as our disguise,
Let the sun rise!

Oh melody you are, are to me the sweet summer song I
want to believe,
just like we predicted.

We rolled into the earth together,
Clouds held our breath as we lay entangled,
I brushed your hair behind your ear,
Whispered so only you could hear,
Just like a song it's you and me,
This is our melody!

Oh melody you are, are to me the sweet summer song I
want to believe,
Please run with me I'm becoming hopelessly addicted -
just like we predicted
