they were supposed to be having such a good time the flowers were there but the guests had not yet arrived but they prayed for you anyway and they tried not to use his name in vain

my eyes going bad I had to smile to see you cry the bottom dropped out somewhere along the way but I won't drag your name around when there's no one left to turn me down expecting the worst was the best that they could do oh, just by a chance would you ever make it alone

yes, they prayed for you anyway
