Tongue tied, trying to get the words out.
Dead airs all that's playing in this car.
What's wrong why are you so nervous,
For someone who was such a jerk.
Your big head is suddenly deflated,
Cause you thought that you had the wheel.
This time I'm the one who's leaving,
The tables will be turning now.

You had me spun,
But look who's coming undone.

Now I'm good good good as gone,
I was right right that you were so wrong.
But it's to late now to try and get me back.
You can knock knock knock on my door,
But I'm not not yours anymore.
And the best revenge is to write this song
Gotta get it out and move right on.
Yeah I'm good good good yeah I'm good as
Good good good yeah I'm good as
Good good good yeah I'm good as gone.

You had, you had a million chances,
But strike three it's time to call you out.
Too bad cause I know I'm the best thing,
That you wish that you still had.

You had me spun,
But look who's coming undone.

Now I'm good good good as gone,

I was right right that you were so wrong.
But it's to late now to try and get me back.
You can knock knock knock on my door,
But I'm not not yours anymore.
And the best revenge is to write this song
Gotta get it out and move right on.
Yeah I'm good good good yeah I'm good as
Good good good yeah I'm good as

Good good good yeah I'm good as gone.

I'm out of here,
Won't she'd a tear.
Not that you'd even care.
Good bye,
The end,
You'll never see me again.

I was good good as gone,
I was right right that you were so wrong.

Now I'm good good good as gone,
I was right right that you were so wrong.
But it's to late now to try and get me back.
You can knock knock knock on my door,
But I'm not not yours anymore.
And the best revenge is to write this song
Gotta get it out and move right on.
Yeah I'm good good good yeah I'm good as
Good good good yeah I'm good as
Good good good yeah I'm good as gone
