As we're standing here
I think it's crystal clear
What I want from you
It's obvious that you want me too
Is it dangerous
For the two of us
To feel this good?
It's the only reason why I think we should

So what's in our way? What's in our way?
The Libertines live for today
For today.....

When you're lying near
My panic disappears
What you've given me
Changes my identity
We're delirious
As they envy us
We're misunderstood
You're the only reason why I thought I could

So let's run away, let's run away
I wouldn't waste another day
Run away....

Libertines
Gone tomorrow
Live for today.....
