Faster, faster, faster, faster
Faster, faster, faster, faster

You caught me
While flying by A pathway
Between the sky
Narrow line
To travel by Faster, faster,
Faster, faster

Confused as I lost my guard
Never thought
It'd be so hard Emotions
So often barred
Faster, faster,
Faster, faster

Crawling, falling
Crawling, falling
Crawling, falling down

Crawling, falling
Crawling, falling
Crawling, falling down

I moved towards
That special place
And walked through
The open gate
This time I
Just can't escape
Faster, faster,
Faster, faster

I wait with
The curtain down Exposed from Beneath my gown

Lights blurring
From all around
Faster, faster,
Faster, faster

Crawling up slow like we're keeping our own time
And the world is spinning faster as I make the day mine
All that's racing has a new fate that can't unwind while screaming
Faster, faster, faster, faster

Help me understand how to keep up this new pace as I'm catching all that's falling and reviving just in case
It's erased. All the lightening falls in the same place while screaming Faster, faster, faster, faster

Crawling, falling
Crawling, falling
Crawling, falling down

Crawling, falling
Crawling, falling
Crawling, falling down

Crawling up slow like we're keeping our own time
And the world is spinning faster as I make the day mine
screaming

Help me understand how to keep up this new pace as
I'm catching all that's falling and reviving just in case
