Unity

"All I have are my false"

Remember your demise
You want the world to hate you
And now you've found your prize
You know I can't escape you

Together we are drifting
Together we will fall
Together we're resisting
Together hear our call

"Peace... We want peace"

Protect my greatest fears
That somehow I'll become you
It's taken all these years
To get my distance from you
We found there's no disguise
There had to be a takedown
And after all these lies
It all creates a breakdown

I sit within the nature
Dirt between my toes
The forest is my shelter
The lake ahead still flows

Together we are drifting
Together we will fall
Together we're resisting
Together hear our call

Unity
"All I have are my false"

Unite, become, erase, ignite
Survive, renew, replace, revise
The thoughts inside you
Create, I know you tried to Decide, review, restart, resist

Your fears. Rebuild your heart
Prevent the ties that bind you
And come back from your breakdown
Breakdown, breakdown, breakdown
Breakdown, breakdown, breakdown
Breakdown, breakdown, breakdown
Breakdown, breakdown, breakdown
Breakdown, breakdown, breakdown
Breakdown

Specks of light and darkness
Bodies to be held
People to be trusted

Together we are drifting
Together we will fall

"Death now walks between us to recognize that we are wrong."
