As I walk amongst the shadows
And reflect on what I've done
All I see ahead is anger
And I know what I've become
In the end who all has suffered?
In the end what have we done?
In the end who all's gone crazy?
In the end who all has won?

Will you cry when you have won?
Will you scream when you have won?
In the end we've just begun
Will you show what you've become?
What's inside when you have won?
What has changed when you have won?
In the end we've just begun
Will you show what you've become?

Your life
To me feels far away
I cannot explain why
There's too much to say
But you're here
For now and so am I
The past is erased now
So let's give a try

In life you'll find a way
With help you'll find a way
In life you'll learn to stay
Somehow you'll find a way

As I walk amongst the shadows
Think of what is yet to come
All the answers become clouded
All the images rerun

Will you cry when you have won?
Will you scream when you have won?
In the end we've just begun
Will you show what you've become?

In life you'll find a way
With help you'll find a way
In life you'll learn to stay
Somehow you'll find a way

"This is your existence..."

In the end who all has suffered?
In the end what have we done?
In the end who all's gone crazy?
Do you got you have to got?
As I walk amongst the shadows
And reflect on what I've done
All I see ahead is anger
And I know what I've become

Somehow you'll find a way
(Will you cry when you have won?)
In life you'll learn to stay
(Will you scream when you have won?)
Somehow you'll find a way
(In the end we've just begun)
(In life you'll learn to stay)
Will you show what you've become?

Will you cry when you have won?
Will you scream when you have won?
In the end we've just begun
Will you show what you've become?
As I walk amongst the shadows
And reflect on what I've done
All I see ahead is anger
And I know what I've become

"This is your existence..."
