I drove up from a river town it was late September early October

Thought maybe I could clear my mind and see the leaves turn red

The tune's up and the window down
On a sky line drive when she bagged me over Hallelujah what a beautiful morning
Were the first words that she said

Her eyes were blue as the sky on a perfect blue ridge

She said I could use a lift if you're going my way and

I was, I was headed south I was headed out
Headed nowhere or anywhere we wanted to go
The road stretched out in front of us
And she was ready to run it just like I was Told me she was twenty-two

And she'd just broken out of William and Mary Another summer under her daddy's roof was all that she could do
Her boyfriend she cut him loose
Too cold for a wedding in January
She said that's enough about me tell me about you

I rambled on about broken hearts and staying too long
She said I'm sorry but you were right to move on and

I was, I was headed south I was headed out
Headed nowhere or anywhere we wanted to go
The road stretched out in front of us
She was ready to run it just like I was

Ain't it funny how everything hinges on a twist of fate
She held my hand and said aren't you amazed and

I was, I was headed south I was headed out
Headed nowhere or anywhere we wanted to go
The road stretched out in front of us
And she ready to run it just like I was
