Every night I'm the life of the party
I turn on with the neon lights
And friends say I'm the object of envy
The call me Mr. Right

Oh I'm the life of the party
I dance every dance with somebody new
The don't see the life of the party
Is dying without you

I wear a smile everywhere I go
Like a suit of armor or a heavy coat
Everybody wants to be around me
'Cause I'm always good for a joke

Oh I'm the life of the party
I dance every dance with somebody new
The don't see the life of the party
Is dying without you

No matter how hard I try
Every laugh is another lie

Oh I'm the life of the party
I dance every dance with somebody new
The don't see the life of the party
Is dying without you
