She got men
She got men
She got men
She can't abstain

She got men
She got men
She got men
She works her plan

She got men
She got men
She got men
That is her game

She got men
She got men
She got men
Leaves all insane

She got a live which's for the enviers a shame
She got immunity there's no need to explain
She got the choice no way she takes never the same
She doesn't care it's wasted time to know their name

She got no mercy for the girls who do complain
She got their boys and she can't understand their pain
She got just men who have the skills to entertain
And if you lose you'll get the chance never again

She can't abstain
She works the plan
That is her game
Leaves all insane
