"When The Bomb Goes Off"

Tick tick tock, ticke ticke tock, tick tick tock, boom
Tick tick tock, ticke ticke tock, tick tick tock, boom
Tick tick tock, ticke ticke tock, tick tick tock, boom
Tick tick tock, ticke ticke tock, tick tick tock, boom

1.)

It spends it's live under a tree
In the grass not hard to see
Well prepared for the routine
When trigger codes get on the screen
We pass each day no one's afraid
Remaining time is not displayed
But the peace is over
When the bomb goes off

2.)

Usually there're many ones
Crackers, shells, beasts weighing tons
Some of them get in the spot
Meanwhile the others stay uncaught
Only the chosen may appear
Stuff that's able to spread fear
But the fun is over
When the bomb goes off

3.)

Do we know which is the right?
Which's the next one could ignite?
All the experts wanna show
Potential aspirants for a blow
Sometimes it's hot sometimes it's cold
One can't wait and one gets old
The guessing game is over
When the bomb goes off
