[Verse]

It has changed everything, when I was sixteen
I never chose this way, I couldn't go away
She had me under her control, this world eroded my soul
When the city slept at night, she lost the fight

[Chorus]

Forgive me my sadness, you were too arrogant
Game Over... Game Over
We have to confess the fact, that this was not serious
Game Over... Game Over

[Verse]

It has changed everything when I was seventeen
I lost my ticket in the rain, for the next train
This pain had me under control, it eroded my soul
Why did you fall to the enemy, you've never answered me

[Chorus 2x]
