Walking through the park of my hometown
I'm dreaming of the time with her
Through the fields upon this old land side
The wind of joy and love still blows

Strolling down the road where I once traveled
I recall a time of peace and of dreams
Can you feel my love and desire
Now our memories all that remains

The Girl from Maryland
She's smiling in all of my dreams
I wish she'd take my hand
Nothing is as it seems

I'm carrying flowers now
Hoping that she'll smile back at me
I'm not quite sure how
But she sets me free

I remember I used to tell her
I really miss you like crazy
We used to celebrate september
When darkness had long gone away

While on an airplane to the states
I'd probably end up with this song
They will call me a big dreamer
But reality's a fairytale

The Girl from Maryland
I wish she'd take my hand

The Girl from Maryland
She's smiling in all of my dreams
I wish she'd take my hand
Nothing is as it seems

I'm carrying flowers now
Hoping that she'll smile back at me
I'm not quite sure how
But she sets me free
