Speak again
And I swear I will make you regret it forever
Go away
Before I lose it again, lose it again
You're not my friend
You never were and I don't think you will be forever
Go away
Before I lose it again

What you say doesn't matter
I'm sick and I'm tired of Hearing your voice in me twenty four seven
Now I'm phasing it out
All the fear and the doubt

Cause I used to give in, but not anymore, anymore

Hello again
I knew you'd come back the second I start to forget you
Go away
I think I told you before, I told you
I've found a way
A way of life that I know you will never be a part of
Go away,
Don't come back again
Never come back again
Don't come back again
