Her face is stained from tears she weeps asleep
She's been a prisoner of greed
But no one's seen her for a week (Where did she go?)
He dreamed to take her far from misery
But he's not who you think he is, just a criminal, a thief

Her face is stained from tears she weeps asleep
She's been a prisoner of greed
But no one's seen her for a week (Where did she go?)
He dreamed to take her far from misery
But he's not who you think he is, just a criminal, a thief

That night was the night he planned to steal her life
But just as he arrived she opened up her eyes

She said take me away forever and never let me out of your sight
This tragic instinct is all I have, your love, love, love
She said take me away forever and never let me out of
your sight
This tragic instinct is all I have, your love, love, love

Just love... love... love
But just as he arrived she opened up her eyes

your sight
This tragic instinct is all I have, your love, love, love

She said take me away forever and never let me out of
your sight
This tragic instinct is all I have, your love, love, love
She said take me away forever and never let me out of
your sight
This tragic instinct is all I have, your love, love, love

Your love, love, love, love
Your love, love, love, love
