It's taken so much time to say these things to you
And I hope it's not too late
We're running out of time and I'm running out of lines
But I've still been trying to hide
Every night I close my eyes and think about the rest of my life
You are all that comes to mind

I always thought in time
I'd know where I would go and I know just what to do
But I never thought that I'd be part of something more
Something more than just myself
Every time I look at you I tell myself I must be strong
I must hold on

But I confess I'm still afraid and weak
I confess there's so much I can't see
But I promise you with my heart in hand
I will give you all of me
I confess I need you here with me
So please just stay with me

I confess I'm still afraid and weak
I'll confess I need you next to me, next to me

I confess I'm still afraid and weak
I confess there's so much I can't see
But I promise you with my heart in hand
I will give you all of me
I confess I need you here with me
So please just stay with me
So please just stay with me
So please just stay with me
Please just stay with me
Please just stay with me
