He says he's had enough
She says she's had it even more
I think we've waited for too long
It's time to go
If you think you've had enough
Then it's time to let it out
The clock keeps ticking

I'm sick & tired of waiting
Let's get this party started
Stop wasting time debating
It's time to make a difference
To start this revolution
I need to hear your voices
Screaming wow wow

Our lives are way too short
For us to be ignored
So I'll take this pen and paper
Declare a war
If you think we've done enough
You're wrong it's just begun
Sing if you're with me

I'm sick & tired of waiting
Let's get this party started
Stop wasting time debating
It's time to make a difference
To start this revolution
I need to hear your voices
Screaming wow wow

It's now or it's never (It's now or it's never)
Tomorrow is too late (tomorrow is too late)
It's now or it's never (It's now or it's never)
Don't give up or give in (Don't give up or give in)
Our time has come to stand up (come to stand up)
Our time has come to stand up (come to stand up... come
To stand up...)

I'm sick & tired of waiting

Let's get this party started
Stop wasting time debating
It's time to make a difference
To start this revolution
I need to hear your voices
Screaming wow wow
Screaming wow wow...
Screaming wow wow...
