Burning Bones lyrics

When a boy was five years old he learned to kill
He was in a war against his will
A man shot the boy without a sound
Then the boy was falling down to the ground

Burning bones
Is all there is left
Burning bones
Seems there is no end x2
Seems there is no, seems there is no end

When a boy was sixteen he was so drunk
He was out all night and he listened to punk

He fucked up everyone, he didn't care
And then he died i don't know where

Burning dreams
Is all there is left
Burning dreams
Seems there is no end x2
Seems there is no, seems there is no end

Burning bones
Is all there is left
Burning bones
Seems there is no end x2
Seems there is no, seems there is no end
