"Walk With You"

I, I've been watching you for the longest time,
You say your feeling fine.
I've noticed a thing or two
To know that it's not true,
You've been on my mind.

Chorus

I don't profess to know the pain
That you carry deep within your veins.
My eyes have never seen the battlefields
You've walked through,
But I'll walk with you.
You, you've been locked inside,
Still the world outside isn't waiting 'round for you.
I'm here to tell you something, not here to preach or nothing,
I'm just to listen, won't you let me lend an ear.

Chorus

Bridge

I don't have the answers or claim to know it all,
I'm just here to catch you when you fall.
