Drawn towards, pull away. Mass compressed, and escape. Not knowing what the Don't ignore the warnings they gave. threat has instore, It will try to tear us apart. But in unity we are saved. Ignorant and blind, No sense within it's mind, It threatens from afar. It's seeking ways to justify. It let's us know it's plans. It's programmed to destroy. And there's no cause to find.
Try to crush the seek that must grow. It's torn apart with it's own hands. Thinking that you know all you know.
Wishing on a strongers demise. Encrypting the truth in it's lies. Poised on the edge of your mindless plans, [CHORUS:] Does the fear inside make the threat seem real. Appear as a lamb, revealed as a wolf, Attractive, destructive, resist the gravitational force. Reactive, seductive, Enticed by promises true and false, Ignorant and blind, It threatens from afar. Fate is simply running it's course. No sense within it's mind, It's seeking ways to justify. And there's no cause to find. It let's us know it's plans. It's programmed to destroy. It's torn apart with it's own hands. Wishing on a strongers demise.
Thinking that you know all you know. Encrypting the truth in it's lies. Try to crush the seek that must grow.
[Chorus]
