Union of opposites becomes union of one's self
The universe above mirrors the universe within
You search for identity, schizophrenic multi-being
Your two have become one

Your Libran scales often sway
Focus your thoughts on balance
Meditate on harmony
Elevate your mind and all that is shall return

Inner equality of masculine and feminine principles
Your active male fuels your fire for furious dominating
Your passive female, maternal soul
Psychic subconscious under the sceptre of Zues
Your two have become one

Let your will penetrate deeply from within
Your Libran scales sway with eternal unrest
Two as one, unisex
You are she and she is him
