(Hook x1)

You might get stabbed in your heart

Gory Days

Get the butcher knife and tear you apart

Gory Days

Gory Days

You better finish what you start

Gory Daaaaaays

When we bludgeon you'll get your brain laced

We'll punch you in the same place

You're bein hands on erased

You crack your head first

Til we break our hands on your face

Whatever I get - you get worse

I got a busted lip

This ain't a playfight

You got stitches in a hospital bed hearse

You'll get beaten in broad daylight

People watchin me kid but I ain't got no stage fright

You're gettin cracked through the side

No cops in sight

We'll find you and put bombs under your eyes

The struggle to live - corrupt

Because too many kicks will pummel your ribs

And if there's more beef

And no ones jumpin in to dead it

When you're outnumbered by six

Wit me and my peeps swingin hatchets and axes

You think they wanna get hit?

All OGs know the code of the street

Mind your own biz, never go to police - that's how it is

I live Scarface scenes

I live Pulp Fiction scenes

Life is one big movie on the screen

Gory Days

You might get stabbed in your heart
