The day is done, the work is over, I'm drivin' home in time
Out in the street the sun's burning and weather will stay fine
The air is hot and very dusty no gentle breeze will move Sweats runnin' down now I drive crazy no way I'm gonna lose

Bridge:

Then I mount my motorbike the engine's startin' fast
Today I'm gonna ride to leave behind the past

Refrain:

Fly like an angel it's so easy to ride I want to break that limits high Speed like a jetplane all the highways I strike I'll ride it till I'm gonna die

Wind in my face, my hair is flowin', I drive the way to sun Time's marchin' on won't stop my happiness, cause I am out to run I can't believe when night comes close in, when darkness follows me Step on the gas, the motor's roarin', as if I'm breaking free

Bridge:

Then I mount my motorbike the engine's startin' fast
Today I'm gonna ride to leave behind the past

Refrain:

Fly like an angel it's so easy to ride I want to break that
limits high
Speed like a jetplane all the highways I strike I'll ride it
till I'm gonna die

All through the night, don't stop my ride til the sun will rise again Face to the streams that cool my body like Â´ never to refrain
I'll go on riding until my day will end my dusty way But till that day I'll ride my Harley, I'll ride it every day...

Bridge:

Then I mount my motorbike the engine's startin' fast
Today I'm gonna ride to leave behind the past

Refrain:

Fly like an angel it's so easy to ride I want to break that
limits high
Speed like a jetplane all the highways I strike I'll ride it
till I'm gonna die

I'll ride it till I'm gonna die
