I can't control this feeling something's happening inside me our senses come alive the chemistry is building it's something that we're feeling there's nowhere you can hide

It's gonna get louder

We're gonna get stronger

We're gonna feel better

You can't tame this energy inside

I gotta reach higher

I wanna burn like a fire

Gotta move faster

You can't tame this energy inside

perpetual emotion it's just a ripple in the ocean a shadow in the night changes we're making for the better we're going through together

it's more than a feeling we're building a dream that we've always had clear in our sights watch it ignite as we open our eye it's the one way we know to survive we're powerfully changing the world we're reclaiming our unity they can't divide they push us around but we're tearing it down and we're having the time of our life

It's gonna get louder
We're gonna get stronger
We're gonna feel better
You can't tame this energy inside
I gotta reach higher
I wanna burn like a fire
Gotta move faster
faster louder stronger better
better
you can't tame this energy inside
