X Project

General ... fighters have annihilated the enemy.
General.

The general:
Hurry up; tell me what's happened. What's the outcome of the battle?

The subordinate:
Well, it is failed, sir.

The general:
What do you mean 'failed'?

The subordinate:
The Astro fighters launched (from) Pluto Base
Have been completely destroyed in course of action, sir.

The general:
That means invasion is imminent.

The adviser:
Yes, sir. We don't have time to assemble our ocean fleet now.

The general:
Our only hope is the X Project. Contact our moon base.

The adviser:
Yes, sir. Contact Doctor ... moon base.

The subordinate:
Yes, sir.

---

The doctor:
I've heard of the bad news.

The general:
Doctor, I need your help.

The doctor:
Nothing I can do, General.

The general:
You must. The Astro fighters have been completely destroyed.

---

X Project; even the name sounds mysterious.
I wonder what it will mean?
I guess we'll soon know.

The general:
Finally the time has come to launch our secret X Project.

The doctor:
But it's only 90% ready, General.

The general:
Well, in other words it's almost completed.

---

Any time you like, we'd appreciate knowing what X Project is all about.

The doctor:
You'll know its secret soon enough.
